

Level		Learning objective and class activities
Beginner	Level 1	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Able to form and understand potential, everyday language. • Introduce oneself, describe weather, plan for weekend, read time, purchase products, order food, and practice other life activities offered by teachers. • Generate simple sentences using 800 words and beginner grammar.
	Level 2	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Able to understand culture, use public service, read sign on streets, visit friends, see doctor, use bank service, and practice other life activities offered by teachers. • Use 1500~2000 words to understand and express paragraphs involving private and friendly topics. • Know how to use language in separate situations - official and unofficial situations.
Intermediate	Level 3	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Able to understand and express familiar, specific social topics in units of paragraphs. • Having no difficulty in language functions needed in living an everyday life, using various public facilities and maintaining social relationships. • Able to understand and express basic characteristics of colloquial and written Korean.
	Level 4	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Able to perform functions needed in using public facilities, maintain social relationships and carry out normal functions. • Able to understand plain content in the new or newspaper columns. • Able to fluently understand and express social and abstract themes. • Able to understand and express social and cultural context based on an understanding of widely used idiomatic expressions and representative Korean culture.
Advanced	Level 5	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Able to express language functions needed in research and work in fields of expertise to a certain extent. • Able to use language skills in unfamiliar themes such as politics, economics, society and culture. • Adequately able to use language in official and unofficial context, and in colloquial and literary context.
	Level 6	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Able to fluently and perfectly express language functions needed in research and work in fields of expertise. • Able to use language skills in unfamiliar themes such as politics, economics, society and culture. • Has no difficulty in language functions or language expressions to a near-native extent.